CONFERENCE FEES

Conference fees are at one rate for all. A refund of £10 is available for those sharing Standard (non en-suite) accommodation. The refund can be applied for during the Conference.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is principally en-suite in the new Lakeside building.

First priority on accommodation requests will be given to people with disabilities. Allocation will then be made on a first come first served basis.

It may not be possible to confirm that your accommodation requests are fulfilled until close to Conference, unless you are disabled.

ROOM OCCUPATION

Are you prepared to share a room with someone? If you are, please let us know with whom you would share when you book.

SPECIAL FAMILY RATES

We wish to encourage families to come to Conference together. An excellent programme is prepared for children and young people.

Families with three children in full time education can bring the third and subsequent children free.

Further subsidies may be available if hardship may prevent attendance. Please enquire.

PART TIME ATTENDANCE

You are welcome to attend for part of the weekend or as a non-resident. The daily rate for adults is as follows. It does not include breakfast.

Full weekend non-resident	£95
Friday	£15
Saturday	£60
Sunday	£20

BURSARIES

Bursaries are given, where funds permit, for young people whose work, service or education might benefit themselves or others by their attendance. Assistance may be given to cover the whole or part of the Conference Fee and/or travel.

Secretaries, Treasurers, or others with responsibility for World Mission Concerns in local churches can receive a 20% discount when attending the Conference for the first time.

Please enquire if you think you may qualify under any of these categories, and encourage anyone who might wish to come.
