

St Peter's Saltley Trust Internship for 2010-11

St Peter's Saltley Trust is an educational charity based in Birmingham and working across the West Midlands region to support and develop creative projects in adult theological education, further education and school religious education.

We would like to appoint an intern for a fixed term of one year, beginning early September 2010 or as soon as possible thereafter, to provide research and administrative support to the Trust director in the development of a series of projects relating to education for Christian discipleship in daily life and work. The internship will include an element of training and scope for the intern to pursue a small action research project of their own choice, within the Trust's remit. Candidates should be passionate about the relationship between faith and education, should be in sympathy with the aims of the Trust, should have good research skills and the ability to work on their own initiative. This post may particularly suit those contemplating a career in church work/ministry, teaching or lecturing. Salary: £12,500 for one year contract.
