'The future is in our hands'

Synopsis

The Year is 2030, darkness has swept through the land and years of fighting and war have taken their toll on the world. A new civilisation is forming under the control of the War Lords, known only to the people as the Accumenti. But all is not as it seems. The Accumenti are trying to build a supreme race of humans. These humans will be without illness or imperfection and totally under the control of the Accumenti. A race of people who all look and act alike and anyone who does not conform to those standards is eliminated....

Hope is found through a travelling Circus. Ringmaster Angel and his team of dedicated followers are becoming a real concern to the Accumenti leaders. His Circus is providing a safe haven for people of difference to live and be loved.

As the Circus gets closer to the gates of Jerusalem, the Accumenti send in their most vile and cruel devotee, Shadow. He is given the task to rid the new world of Ringmaster Angel and see the downfall of the Circus. Will he be successful.....?
